Four Americans Held at Gunpoint in East Berlin

Two Congressmen, Wife of One, Officer Freed After Four Hours

BERLIN (AP)—The U. S. Army announced today that Communist police and Russians held four Americans—including two congressmen and the wife of one—at gunpoint for four hours in East Berlin.

They were Rep. Edward Boland (D-Mass.), Rep. Harold C. Ostertag (R-N.Y.) and Mrs. Ostertag, and Lt. James T. McQueen of Mullins, S. C. McQueen was escorted in the group.

Maj. Gen. Charles L. Dasher, U. S. commandant in Berlin, said he would visit Soviet headquarters today and personally deliver a "vigorous protest" to Maj. Gen. P. A. Dibrova, over the "unjustified mistreatment" of the Americans.

Radio Called Violation

The Russians told the Americans Sunday the group had been detained because it "violated" the laws of the German Democratic Republic by using a radio in a vehicle in East German territory.

The Army sedan in which the group was riding was equipped with radio for communications with U. S. headquarters.

Charles Owsley, State Department political affairs chief in Berlin, rejected the Soviet contention. He said Berlin is a four-power city and the Americans are not bound by East German laws.

However, the incident raised the question of whether in the future the Soviets will insist that the Western allies be subject to East German laws.

Ostertag, 59, is from Attica, N. Y. He is a member of the board of visitors of the Naval Academy and a member of the Commission on Inter-Governmental Relations. Boland is from Springfield, Mass.

Experience said Harrowing Ostertag told a press conference, "It was a harrowing experience. I was disturbed but felt that somehow it would be straightened out."

"My wife was rather nervous," he said.

The group visited the Soviet war memorial, called the "Garden of Remembrance" in East Berlin. This is a frequent visiting place for Army tourists.

As the Army sedan was leaving the memorial grounds, an East German "peoples policeman" demanded the keys from the sedan's German driver.

McQueen said, "I took the keys from the driver but handed them over to the policeman when he drew his pistol and cocked it. He did not point the pistol at any one of us."

"I immediately tried to use the radio telephone to report the incident to U. S. headquarters, but was stopped by a second policeman who drew his pistol."

McQueen made a second attempt to use the radio when the policemen were not looking. This time he was successful.

Lt. Col. Vernon Hammonds, American provost marshal, from Henrietta, Tex., arrived after being alerted by McQueen's radio call.

Hammonds proposed that the party be released in his custody and that the matter be settled by General Dasher and General Dibrova. The Soviets accepted this and the party was released.

Mother Leaves to Make Phone Call; 3 Babies Die in Fire

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP)—A young couple who lost three babies when fire swept through their house kept a heartsick vigil today while their two surviving children fought for their lives.

"I left the house to make a telephone call. I wasn't away five minutes. Now three of my babies are gone," said Mrs. Connie Johnson, 25.

One child, Richard, 2, burned to death when fire swept through the Johnson home Saturday night. Two others, Richard's twin sister, Victoria, and Mark, 8 months, died Sunday in Pontiac General Hospital.

The two survivors, Steven, 4, and Donald, 3, were in critical condition.

Four of the children already had been rescued by the time the mother returned from making her call across the street. Richard, believed to have started the fire by playing with a gas range, was found dead on the kitchen floor.

Don T. Boyd, 23, a neighbor, crawled into the inferno three times and each time brought out one child.

Excommunicate Two Women for Beating Teacher

ERATH, La. (AP)—A Roman Catholic priest disclosed today that his life was threatened after a bishop excommunicated two women accused of beating a teacher of an integrated catechism class.

Father A. J. Labbe, pastor of the 2,500-member parish which includes Our Lady of Lourdes Church and read to all Masses Sunday. They threatened other church members with "automatic excommunication if there are any more signs of violence."

Two women were excommunicated from the Catholic Church—harsh and most feared disciplinary measure imposed on a member—and other parishioners were threatened with similar treatment by Bishop Jules B. Jeannard of Lafayette.

The orders were nailed to the door of Our Lady of Lourdes Church and read to all Masses Sunday. They threatened other church members with "automatic excommunication if there are any more signs of violence."

Father Labbe said the decree stated that if there are any more signs of violence the church also will be closed.

The order by Jeannard, for 25 years a bishop who has been cited by Negro parishioners in the past for his "historic, priestly leadership and service," will remain in effect until ordered down himself. Anyone else removing the decree was threatened with "immediate excommunication."

Classes in the church school were halted after what Labbe described as the "severe" beating of the teacher but he said instructions would be resumed on Dec. 5.

The latest disorder followed by several weeks the closing of a Catholic Church at Jesuit Bend, La., because parishioners there had objected to the use of a Negro priest for Sunday Masses. The FBI has been investigating the Jesuit Bend affair.

Ralph Furlong, 58, Dies Near Galatia

Ralph Furlong, 58, died Saturday night at his home west of Galatia. The body, received by the Courtney funeral home, now lies in state at the family residence.

He is survived by the widow, Hester; two daughters, Mrs. Hazel Eickelman, East Alton, and Mrs. Ora Berbow, Chicago, and a son, Bert Furlong of Ovan, Ohio. Also surviving are a sister, Mrs. Lena Price, Wheaton, and a brother, George Furlong, Jacksonville.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Union Grove Free Will Baptist church, west of Galatia on the Harco road. Rev. Floyd Slow of Allendale will officiate. Burial will be in the Jones cemetery, west of Thompsonville.

Arctic Air Also Pours Into Southern States

Temperatures To Plunge in Mid-Atlantic States

By United Press

A bitter cold wave froze the nation from the Rockies to the Appalachians and from the Canadian border to the Gulf Coast today.

The Arctic air raced across the Midwest and then poured into Eastern and Southern states. Cold wave warnings were posted for Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, New York state and Pennsylvania.

In addition, the U. S. Weather Bureau at Washington issued special cold wave warnings for the area across the Appalachians through the Middle Atlantic states. Temperatures were expected to plunge to between 15 and 20 degrees above zero in the Middle Atlantic coastal area.

TEMPERATURE DROPS TO 11 ABOVE HERE

The Harrisburg community today had its coldest taste of winter after the mercury dropped 39 degrees between noon yesterday and this morning.

The official low this morning was 11 degrees above zero. Yesterday started off pleasant, with a high reading of 50 at noon. However, cold winds started blowing in from the west and the mercury descended hurriedly. In the early evening the wind was accompanied by snow flurries.

area and from zero to 10 above in the central Appalachian and Ohio Valley areas.

The Canadian freeze also dropped temperatures as much as 45 degrees in Nebraska and nudged the temperature to zero levels in much of the nation's North.

Early today, cold wave conditions ruled through most of the Great Lakes, Ohio Valley, and the middle and upper Mississippi valleys. Temperatures were below zero or close to it in Wisconsin, Minnesota, and North Dakota, and were below 10 above as far south as central Illinois, northern Kansas, and northern Missouri.

Traffic Slowed

Gusty winds and quick-freezing snow accompanied the cold snap in the Midwest, slowing traffic to an agonizing crawl in northern Michigan and causing close to 1,000 auto accidents in Chicago.

Two miles of cars lined up for ferries in three and a half inches of snow at the Straits of Mackinac in Michigan. State police reported that it took from four to five hours to drive the 65 miles from New Buffalo, Mich., to Chicago.

In the Windy City, the snow turned to rain and rain turned to sleet. The accident rate zoomed and commuters reported delayed trains because ice had frozen railroad signals in downstate Illinois.

Farther south, the temperature dropped to 30 at Memphis, Tenn., and to 23 at Dallas, Tex. The weather was mild along the West Coast, but was marred by heavy fog along the southern California shoreline.

Six Killed, Four Injured in Head-On Collision

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Six persons were killed and four hospitalized with injuries from a head-on two-car collision near here shortly before Sunday midnight.

Five of the victims were from Peoria, Ill., and four were from one Peoria family.

The police identified the dead from one car as: Ralph K. Braden, 23; his wife, Mrs. Christine Braden, 24; a daughter, Janice Kay Braden, 3; and a son, Dennis Michael Braden, 6 months; all of Peoria. Another passenger, Jeanne Duncan, 4, Peoria, died at Children's Hospital today.

Cecil V. Redman, Taylorsville, Ky., was killed in the other car.

The injured included: Mr. and Mrs. Owen L. Duncan, parents of Jeanne, and another 18-month-old daughter, Terry. Ted Goodlett, Mount Eden, Ky., who was in Redman's car, was also injured.

The Duncans and Bradens were both returning from Thanksgiving visits to their former home at Oliver Springs, Tenn.

Bull Backs Down Before Angry Woman

LONDON (AP)—Mrs. Jane Boyce found out Sunday that an enraged bull was just a coward at heart when faced by an angry woman.

Mrs. Boyce, 39, rushed to the rescue when she heard the screams of farmer Charles Oliver and saw him losing a battle with the bull. She smashed a walking stick over the animal's head but it broke, so she did the next best thing.

She stared the bull in the eye and firmly told it to leave. The animal pawed the ground uncertainly, and then trotted off. Oliver was not seriously hurt.

Detention Home Matron Killed By Five Girls

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Four of five delinquent girls who escaped from the county detention home Sunday night by slaying a matron were back in custody today. Two of them surrendered on the advice of a boy friend.

The five escaped in a freezing snowstorm. Two of the girls gave themselves up several hours later.

Police said the teenage girls bound Eula Bonham, 59, resident matron at the home, with string and stuffed her mouth with washclothes soaked in ammonia. The two recaptured girls said the group had planned the murder and escape for days and had rehearsed it Sunday.

Still at large was Mrs. Zelda De Cost, 16.

Shirley Shingler, 15, and Ruth Beichler, 15, were captured in the rear room of a restaurant. They told police they had hitchhiked to Cleveland, 35 miles away, and returned.

The three still at large were identified as Ruth Beichler, 16; Zelda de Cost, 16, and Shirley Shingler, 15.

No charge had been filed against the girls, police said. Two of the girls had sex delinquency backgrounds and one had once been held for trying to knife a man with whom she had been drinking.

Police said the matron apparently died instantly after the girls were jammed down her throat. The girls had hoarded the ammonia from supplies used for cleaning floors, police said.

The girls apparently jumped the matron when she entered their locked dormitory on a routine inspection, police said. They escaped through a smashed window and raced into a snowstorm, wearing only short-sleeved prison dresses.

Miss Bonham was to have been married in a few days, officers said.

Denies Education Meeting Stacked Against Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Neil McElroy, chairman of the White House Conference on Education, today rejected charges that the conference has been stacked with opponents of federal aid to schools.

McElroy, president of Procter and Gamble Co., of Cincinnati, Ohio, said that the diverse methods by which state education organizations chose delegates to the conference "precludes any possibility of stacking" in favor of any point of view.

McElroy was asked about the stacking charge, recently raised by Rep. Augustine B. Kelley (D-Pa.), at a news conference. The four-day education conference opens tonight with a filmed greeting from President Eisenhower.

Labor delegates planned to seek changes in the conference rules which at present do not provide for any general floor debate or voting.

Their opening gun will be an attempt to change the procedure of the four-day conference to permit floor debate on the federal aid question. Rules for the conference, which opens tonight, now provide for no overall debates or voting.

The conference—the first of its kind—was called by President Eisenhower to cope with problems facing the nation's schools.

About 100 delegates from the CIO, AFL and railroad brotherhoods decided at a strategy session Sunday night to push for a full-fledged debate on federal aid—the hottest issue before the meeting. Some labor delegates charged the session is stacked against federal aid.

Begin Picketing At Shoe Plants

ST. LOUIS (AP)—CIO and AFL union officials said picketing is starting today at about 20 non-union shoe plants of International Shoe Co. and Brown Shoe Co. in Missouri, Arkansas, Tennessee and Illinois.

The strike, largest in shoe industry history, was called three weeks ago to back up demands for a 12 per cent wage increase and a two year contract. The company has offered 7 1/2 per cent.

Gives Opinion After Visit With President

First Political Conference for Ike Since Heart Attack

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall said today after a conference with President Eisenhower today that he felt "very much encouraged" about prospects that the President will run for reelection.

"So far as I am concerned, there is no other candidate," Hall told reporters after a 45-minute talk with the President in his temporary White House office here.

Hall made it plain that the President himself did not say or indicate what his decision will be about a second term.

"I can only speak my opinion," Hall said. "I can say I am very much encouraged."

First Since Attack

The long private talk with Hall was Mr. Eisenhower's first admittedly political conference since his Sept. 24 heart attack.

It was also the first time the GOP national chairman had seen Mr. Eisenhower since Sept. 10.

Hall said his optimism about Mr. Eisenhower seeking reelection was based not only on the apparent good state of the President's health, but also "from his attitude and his interests in what is going on—interest that goes beyond today or tomorrow."

"I am happy to say that all reports about his condition have been confirmed," Hall told newsmen.

"He looks a million per cent. I've never seen him look better."

Predicts Nixon Too

Hall predicted the President will run in 1960 "if he feels able" and that he will defeat the Democratic candidate by a bigger margin than in 1952, when Adlai E. Stevenson carried only nine states.

Hall said he also expects Vice President Richard M. Nixon to be Mr. Eisenhower's running mate again in 1960. He emphasized that this was only his personal opinion.

Hall, who always has been optimistic about prospects for the President's full recovery and his candidacy for a second term, was asked specifically if he felt better about these prospects after today's talk than he did before.

"I feel better about it after the conference than before," he replied.

Hall flew back to Washington after his news conference.

Second On List

Hall was second on the President's list of callers. First the President was seeing Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell to talk about "routine business" of the Labor Department.

The President's conference with Hall marked another milestone in his recovery. Mr. Eisenhower—in his own words—has been easing his way back into harness, assuming more and more of the arduous duties of his office. But his work so far has been official, not political.

Politics may be the big news here most of the week.

The President's scheduled callers include both House Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. (Mass.) and Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) who will be here Saturday for separate conferences on the approaching legislative struggle in Congress.

Death Takes Mrs. John Fielden; Funeral Tuesday

Mrs. Esther Lydia Fielden, wife of John Fielden, died Saturday at 3:30 a. m. at her home, 822 South Lefford. She had been in ill health for six years and seriously ill for the past two months.

Mrs. Fielden was born in Beech Grove, Ky., the daughter of the late Levy and Jane Tanner. She and her family moved to Harrisburg in 1908 from Central City.

Besides her husband Mrs. Fielden leaves a son, Almon Fielden of Chicago, and a daughter, Mrs. Otis Burden of Harrisburg. Also surviving are two grandchildren, Martin F. Burden and Beverly Sadler, both of Indianapolis, Ind., and one great-grandchild, Marta Sue Burden. Three nieces, Mrs. Charles Brooks, Mitchellville, Mrs. W. O. Brooks, Harrisburg, Mrs. W. P. Camp, Owensboro, Ky., and one nephew, Estel Tanner, Calhoun, Ky., also survive.

Mrs. Fielden was the last of a family of five children. She was a member of the First Christian church of Harrisburg where the funeral will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. Rev. Glen Daugherty will officiate and burial will be in Sunset Hill cemetery. The body will lie in state in the chapel of the Harrisburg funeral home until time for the funeral.

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Solons Jockey To See Who Gets Credit For Building Schools; But No Schools Get Built; Aid To Schools Now Stymied By Segregation And Catholic Debates.

WASHINGTON. — The White House Conference on Education, widely advertised as the greatest educational event since Plato founded the Academy 2,000 years ago, convenes in Washington today.

However, unlike Plato's Greeks who founded democracy, it first proposed to keep some of its members gagged. The congressmen who have to introduce the legislation to carry out any aid-to-education program found themselves unable to debate as delegates, and raised such a storm of protest that conference officials went into a quick reverse.

"I am affronted by this invitation and will not attend," said Congressman Frank Thompson of New Jersey, Democrat. He described the gag rule as "approaching an insult."

"Unless I have the status of a delegate and can participate in the discussions of the conference," wrote Congressman Cleveland Bailey of West Virginia with irate brevity, "I would rather remain in a position where I can continue to support the legislation approved by the House Committee on Education a few days prior to the adjournment of Congress."

Congressman Jimmy Roosevelt of California said he was "indignant," while Mrs. Edith Green of Oregon decided to remain in Portland.

As a result, the White House gave them full delegate status.

STYMIED SCHOOL BILL

Behind the White House Conference on Education and the effort to silence congressmen is some interesting history. It involves a vigorous battle over who can take the credit for aiding education.

Last winter at the urging of Mrs. Agnes Meyer, a personal friend of the President and a strong booster for better schools, like included a brief reference to schools in his state of the union message. However, Democratic leaders branded this totally inadequate and proceeded to introduce their own school aid bill.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Hobby, then secretary of health, education, and welfare, had hung back. She did not want legislation in 1955, but only after she could hold a big White House conference on education such as scheduled to open today. She had even taken the extreme step, earlier, of forbidding her commissioner of education, Sam Brownell, from testifying at a congressional hearing.

Meanwhile, Sen. Lister Hill of Alabama told Mrs. Hobby that the educational world already had held seven conferences, that everyone knew what the school needs were, and there was no use waiting for more conferences.

Finally, to head off the Democrats, President Eisenhower sent a special message to Congress recommending a meager school bill for 1955. It did not go nearly as far as his multimillion-dollar highway program however, and later, after the Supreme Court segregation decision, southern Democrats also got cold feet and proceeded to stymie school construction.

Northern Democrats still pushed
it. But, caught between unenthusiastic Republicans and unenthusiastic southern Democrats, the school bill was never passed.

So, with Mrs. Hobby now out of government, the White House conference which she so wanted convenes today.

SOUTHERN-NORTHERN OPPOSITION

Congressman Graham Barden, North Carolina Democrat, a great booster of aid to schools before the Supreme Court segregation decision, moved adroitly to get northern school-minded congressmen out of town before today's session. He scheduled a tempting luncheon to Puerto Rico for his Education and Labor committee to study minimum wage needs there.
Barden once got more criticism from Cardinal Spellman and Catholic leaders than any other public figure except Mrs. Roosevelt, by pushing federal aid to education. But since the Supreme Court decision he has been just the opposite.

The Catholic College of Bishops recently meeting in Washington issued a strong statement that parochial schools should be included in any federal aid. As a result, the separation-of-church-and-state issue is certain to enter into the education debate when Congress reconvenes, and, since many northern Democrats come from Catholic areas, it may influence their position too.

INSIDE THE KREMLIN

Senator Kefauver, while in Moscow, sat in on an interesting conversation inside the Kremlin with Premier Bulganin and party boss Khrushchev. He got the impression that Khrushchev was easily the more dominating of the two.

Despite his toughness, Khrushchev has a contagious sense of humor and at one time was telling Kefauver and other U. S. senators how he was trying to move 200,000 people to Eastern Russia, but they wouldn't go.

"You see, we have trouble with our constituents, too," said the top leader of the Communist party.

At another point in the conversation, Khrushchev and Bulganin had an argument in front of the senators, after which Bulganin turned to them and said:
"You see, we have our conflicts, too."

At one point a senator asked Bulganin and Khrushchev why the Russians were opposed to the U.
S. having bases abroad.

"How would you like it if we built a base down in Cuba?" was Khrushchev's quick rejoinder.

"We'd bomb the hell out of you," replied Senator Malone of Nevada.

WASHINGTON PIPELINE

When Your Child Catches Cold
GIVE HER RELIEF FROM SUFFERING THAT Does More Than Work on Chest

She needs Vicks VapoRub—the proved medication that acts two ways at once. When you rub it on, VapoRub quickly relieves muscular soreness. At the same time, VapoRub's medicated vapors bring relief with every breath. Soothing medication travels deep into your child's nose, throat and large bronchial tubes. Congestion starts breaking up. Coughing eases. Warming relief comes, lasts for hours. So when colds strike, depend on—

Family Thanksgiving Reunion At Frank Crowder Home
A family reunion and Thanksgiving dinner was held Thursday at the Frank Crowder home in Ledford community. All of the living children and their families of Frank Crowder and the late Olive Gertrude Crowder were present for the occasion.
Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Davis and Janice and Judith of Ormond Beach, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Proctor Terrell, Evansville, Ind., Hal Crowder, Willow Springs, Ill., Mrs. Dwayne Fowler and daughter, Debra, Lamont, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell Crowder and children, Glendel Gene, Bill, Jerry Lee, Ronnie and Donna Sue, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sandage and daughter, Kenya, and son, Stevie, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hughes and daughter, Debra, Bill Sandage, Frank Crowder and Billy Crowder.
Afternoon callers were Mrs. Paul Beltz and granddaughter, Donna Kay, Mrs. Grace Riley and daughters, Melva Gay and Connie.

Mrs. J. V. Capel Hostess To Chapter Z, P.E.O.
Mrs. J. V. Capel was hostess to Chapter Z, P.E.O. on Friday afternoon. Mrs. J. P. Durham, president, presided during the business session and contribution was made to the Santa Claus fund.
Mrs. R. L. Metcalf, acting program chairman, introduced Mrs. Wayne Dixon who reviewed the book "Andersonville," a very recent historical novel by Mackinlay Kantor based on the life and hardships of the prisoners at the time of the Civil War. It is destined to be one of the great books and was very ably presented.
Mrs. Carl Rude talked on the standing rules of P.E.O.
Refreshments were served by the hostess during the social hour.
It was announced the next meeting will be held on Dec. 9 at the home of Mrs. George Barnes.

His Disciples Class Meets With Sarah Fox
His Disciples Sunday school class of the Dorrisville Social Brethren church held its class party recently at the home of Sarah Fox. The meeting was opened with the song, "Just a Closer Walk With Thee," and prayer was given by Pauline Durfee. The devotion, taken from Psalm 100, was presented by Cordelia York.
The class planned a Christmas party and plans were made to give a basket to some needy family. Games were played and prizes won by Virginia Vanhise, Wilma Guley, Pauline Durfee and Cordelia York. Refreshments of pumpkin pie and coffee were served to the following besides those previously mentioned, Gladys Austin, Elaine York, Marjorie York, the hostess, Sarah Fox and children. The December meeting will be held at the home of Audrey Reed on the 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. Griff Froman, Dorris Heights, had a most pleasant Thanksgiving holiday when all their children and families were home. Thanksgiving dinner was served on the balcony of Schriener's cafe and then all visited at the Froman home. Those present for the day were Mr. and Mrs. H. Brashner, Nancy, Nolan, Marvin and Myron of St. Elmo, Mr. and Mrs. B. Broman, Gayle, Terry and Griff of Lansing, Ill.; Mrs. Bernice McMahon, Mr. and Mrs. E. McDowell and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Aldridge, Greta, Gary, Paul and Rodger, and Mr. and Mrs. Froman, all of Harrisburg.

Jim Durham, a student at Vanderbilt university, Nashville, Tenn., spent the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Durham.

Calendar Of Meetings
There will be a stated meeting of Galatia 100F Lodge No. 433 Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. to which all members are requested to attend. Visitors are welcome. Frank J. Burks, N. G.
Rev. M. W. De Witt, pastor of the Church of God, will be in charge of the W.C.T.U. radio program tonight at 7:45 over WEBQ.
The Friendship class of the Dorrisville Baptist church will meet at 7 p. m. Tuesday with Mrs. Callie Taylor.
The American Legion will hold a meeting tonight at 7:30 at the Legion home. Paul Golish, commander.
Coal-fired steam generators produced 61 per cent of the total power output of New York City's 16 utility plants in 1954. Outside New York City coal generated 98 per cent of all power produced in commercial steam plants.
Mechanization of coal handling operations has been given a new turn with the successful development of equipment to weigh coal on conveyor belts en route from preparation plants to barges.

Foreign Policy Attacks Dangerous To Country: Hall
WASHINGTON — Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall said today recent attacks on administration foreign policy by New York Gov. W. Averell Harriman were "pretty dangerous and not in the best interests of the country."
Hall made the statement to reporters at Gettysburg, Pa., after talking politics for 45 minutes with President Eisenhower. He emphasized that he was voicing his own views, not the President's.
Harriman, regarded as a contender for the Democratic presidential nomination, in recent days has accused the administration of "bungling" in foreign policy. He also termed the Geneva Big Four meetings a "victory" for the communists.
Hall said Mr. Eisenhower has been working for bipartisanship in foreign policy, but this effort cannot succeed "if we have the Harrimans running around saying what they are saying."
Democrats showed no signs of abating their criticism of the administration record in world affairs, however.
The administration's overseas program drew criticism Sunday from Democratic Sens. Joseph C. O'Mahoney (Wyo.) and John J. Sparkman (Ala.) and Democratic Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey. The National Planning Assn. also issued a statement that Russia has handed the United States major foreign policy defeats in recent months.

Two Honored at Double Birthday Dinner
A double birthday dinner was held Thanksgiving Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brannock at Bankston in honor of Mr. Brannock and Cecelia Shetler.
A delicious dinner with a large birthday cake was enjoyed by the following:
Mrs. Shetler and son, Billy Joe, Wanda Williams, Charles Brannock, Luella Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Brannock.

Revival at Liberty
A revival by the Liberty Baptist church, with services each evening at 7 o'clock, starts today. Rev. Roy Reynolds of Harrisburg will do the preaching. Worship services will be held in the Liberty school and the public is cordially invited to attend all the revival meetings.

Re-Elect Carbondale Man Director of Federal Reserve Bank
According to announcement of M. Moss Alexander, chairman of the board, the results of the election of directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, are as follows:
J. E. Etherton, president, Carbondale National bank, Carbondale, was re-elected by member banks in Group 3 as a Class A director for a three-year term beginning Jan. 1, 1956.
S. J. Beauchamp Jr., president, Terminal Warehouse Co., Little Rock, Ark., was re-elected by member banks in Group 2 as a Class B director for a three-year term beginning Jan. 1, 1956.
The Federal Reserve Bank has nine directors; three, designated Class C, are appointed by the Board of Governors in Washington, and six, Classes A and B, are chosen by member banks. The Class A directors represent banking, and the Class B directors, commerce, agriculture, or some other industrial pursuit.

Graham Granted Second Continuance
DENVER — A state court today granted a second continuance, until Dec. 9, in the scheduled arraignment of confessed plane saboteur John Gilbert Graham.
Graham, 23, appeared with his three court-appointed attorneys at 10 a. m. CST today before District Judge Edward J. Keating to enter a plea to a charge of murdering his mother, one of 44 persons killed in the United Air Lines DC6B air lines bomb plot crash Nov. 1.

A black and white cartoon illustration. A man wearing a hat, a light-colored shirt, and dark pants is mowing a lawn with a push mower. He is smoking a pipe. A young girl in a polka-dot dress and a bow in her hair is watching him. The background shows a house and a tree. The man is walking towards the right, and the girl is standing still, looking at him. The scene is set in a yard with a fence and a house in the background. The man is holding the handle of the mower, and the wheels are visible. The girl is standing with her hands on her hips, looking up at the man. The overall style is a simple line drawing with some shading.

"Why don't you trim the edges with your electric razor?"

Murder in Haiti
by John W. Vandercook

There was another splash. Sand winced. "I have no grappling equipment! That is an engineering project. It might take days. Weeks! I have no time." He waved his arms. "It would be impossible to avoid detection!"

Splash.

He groaned. "Are we just going to stand here and let that maniac throw that gold away?"

Splash.

Lynch spoke with the air of a patient man who had now lost all patience.

"Of course we are! What else do you suggest? Might I also inquire, sir, for what reason you are keeping the yacht on its present course? There's no further purpose to be served by going in. If this Vogel hasn't already come to the end of his 19 chests, he will have done long before anyone can reach him. Evidently he carried them all to the parapet before he threw the first one down."

"You are right," Sand muttered. He gestured toward Carey. The captain went into the wheelhouse. There was the remote clang of the engine room telegraph and the Vittoria began slowly to back water.

"Surely, Sand, you must have realized for some time it was ingenious of you to imagine you could successfully make off with that gold? Even if this had not happened?"

"So? And who would have prevented me?"

"I would," said Lynch sharply.

We found we were all listening attentively to nothing. The gold fishes had ceased. The giant figure against the sky had disappeared.

The performance of the small hours of the morning was repeated.

In order, as we came to them, we knocked at Mrs. Wyndam's door, at Lily's, at Dr. Lund's, at Paul Souhani's, at Reg Dibble's. All were present.

For all aike Lynch had the same message to stay where they were. Under no circumstances to open their doors to anyone, and at precisely 11 o'clock to make their way to the lounge on the deck below. He would see to it, Lynch said, that at that hour both corridors and the stairway would be closely guarded by members of the crew.

Lynch smirked. "In questioning a group like this, surprise is of the first importance. Unfortunately so much time has elapsed we can no longer hope for that. Second best is to create suspense. Let 'em stew a bit. Tonight the second best will have to do."

He had put off Meer's cabin until last. Lynch took the key out of his pocket, unlocked the door and unceremoniously marched in.

Siegrfried Meer was sitting on the edge of his rumpled bed, wearing his dark blue robe and holding his tousled head in his hands.

"Overdid a bit last night, huh?"

Meer started to shake his head, then thought better of it. "I did not think so."

"Tell us about Vogel. All about him, mind."

"Nein!"

"Ah," said Lynch, "but you will! I give you my word you will. Shall I tell you why? At the moment you are under suspicion for murder. The murder was committed on Haitian soil. If you don't cooperate with me fully I shall turn you over to the Haitian authorities. Quite apart from the fact that your errand here is fraudulent, grossly illegal. A crime in short not only against the allies but your own government. Follow?"

"Murder? I do not know what it is you mean?"

"Don't be ingenuous with me." Lieutenant Braun was shot thru the face last night. In the lower chest of the Portal Four. It interrupted him in a private effort to secure the treasure for himself. Your friend Vogel, by the way, has thrown your precious chests into the sea."

There was a long silence while Meer stared at the floor. At last he looked up. "What is it that you want of me?"

Lynch was brisk — and loud. "First, your name and rank. Braun's, I believe I know."

"Ober-Lieutenant Horst Haller. Unterseeboot 976. Commander Hellmuth."

"Now Vogel."

"April 29, 1945 . . ." The words came slowly and with hesitation but they did not stop. "We surfaced—" he vaguely pointed, "Inside the slip it was. It was 10 o'clock at night and dark. Six men with Commander Hellmuth and myself were chosen. Karl Vogel his name is, with the rating of quartermaster, was chosen their leader because he was very strong.

"The plan was Commander Hellmuth's. He had had service in this place in 1915." Meer's voice droned on.

"These men, they were to carry the cases up. They were instructed that in this they should have no interest and they must remember nothing. We did not wear uniform."

"Go on."

"At three hours we are finished. We start down the path. I see that Vogel is not with us. I go back. I see he has a paper in his hand and with a pencil on it is drawing. Such a thing is Verboten. I shot him with my revolver. In the head. It was my duty. I put his body into the bushes. Commander Hellmuth is very severe that I have fired a shot. I do not know until last night I had not killed him."

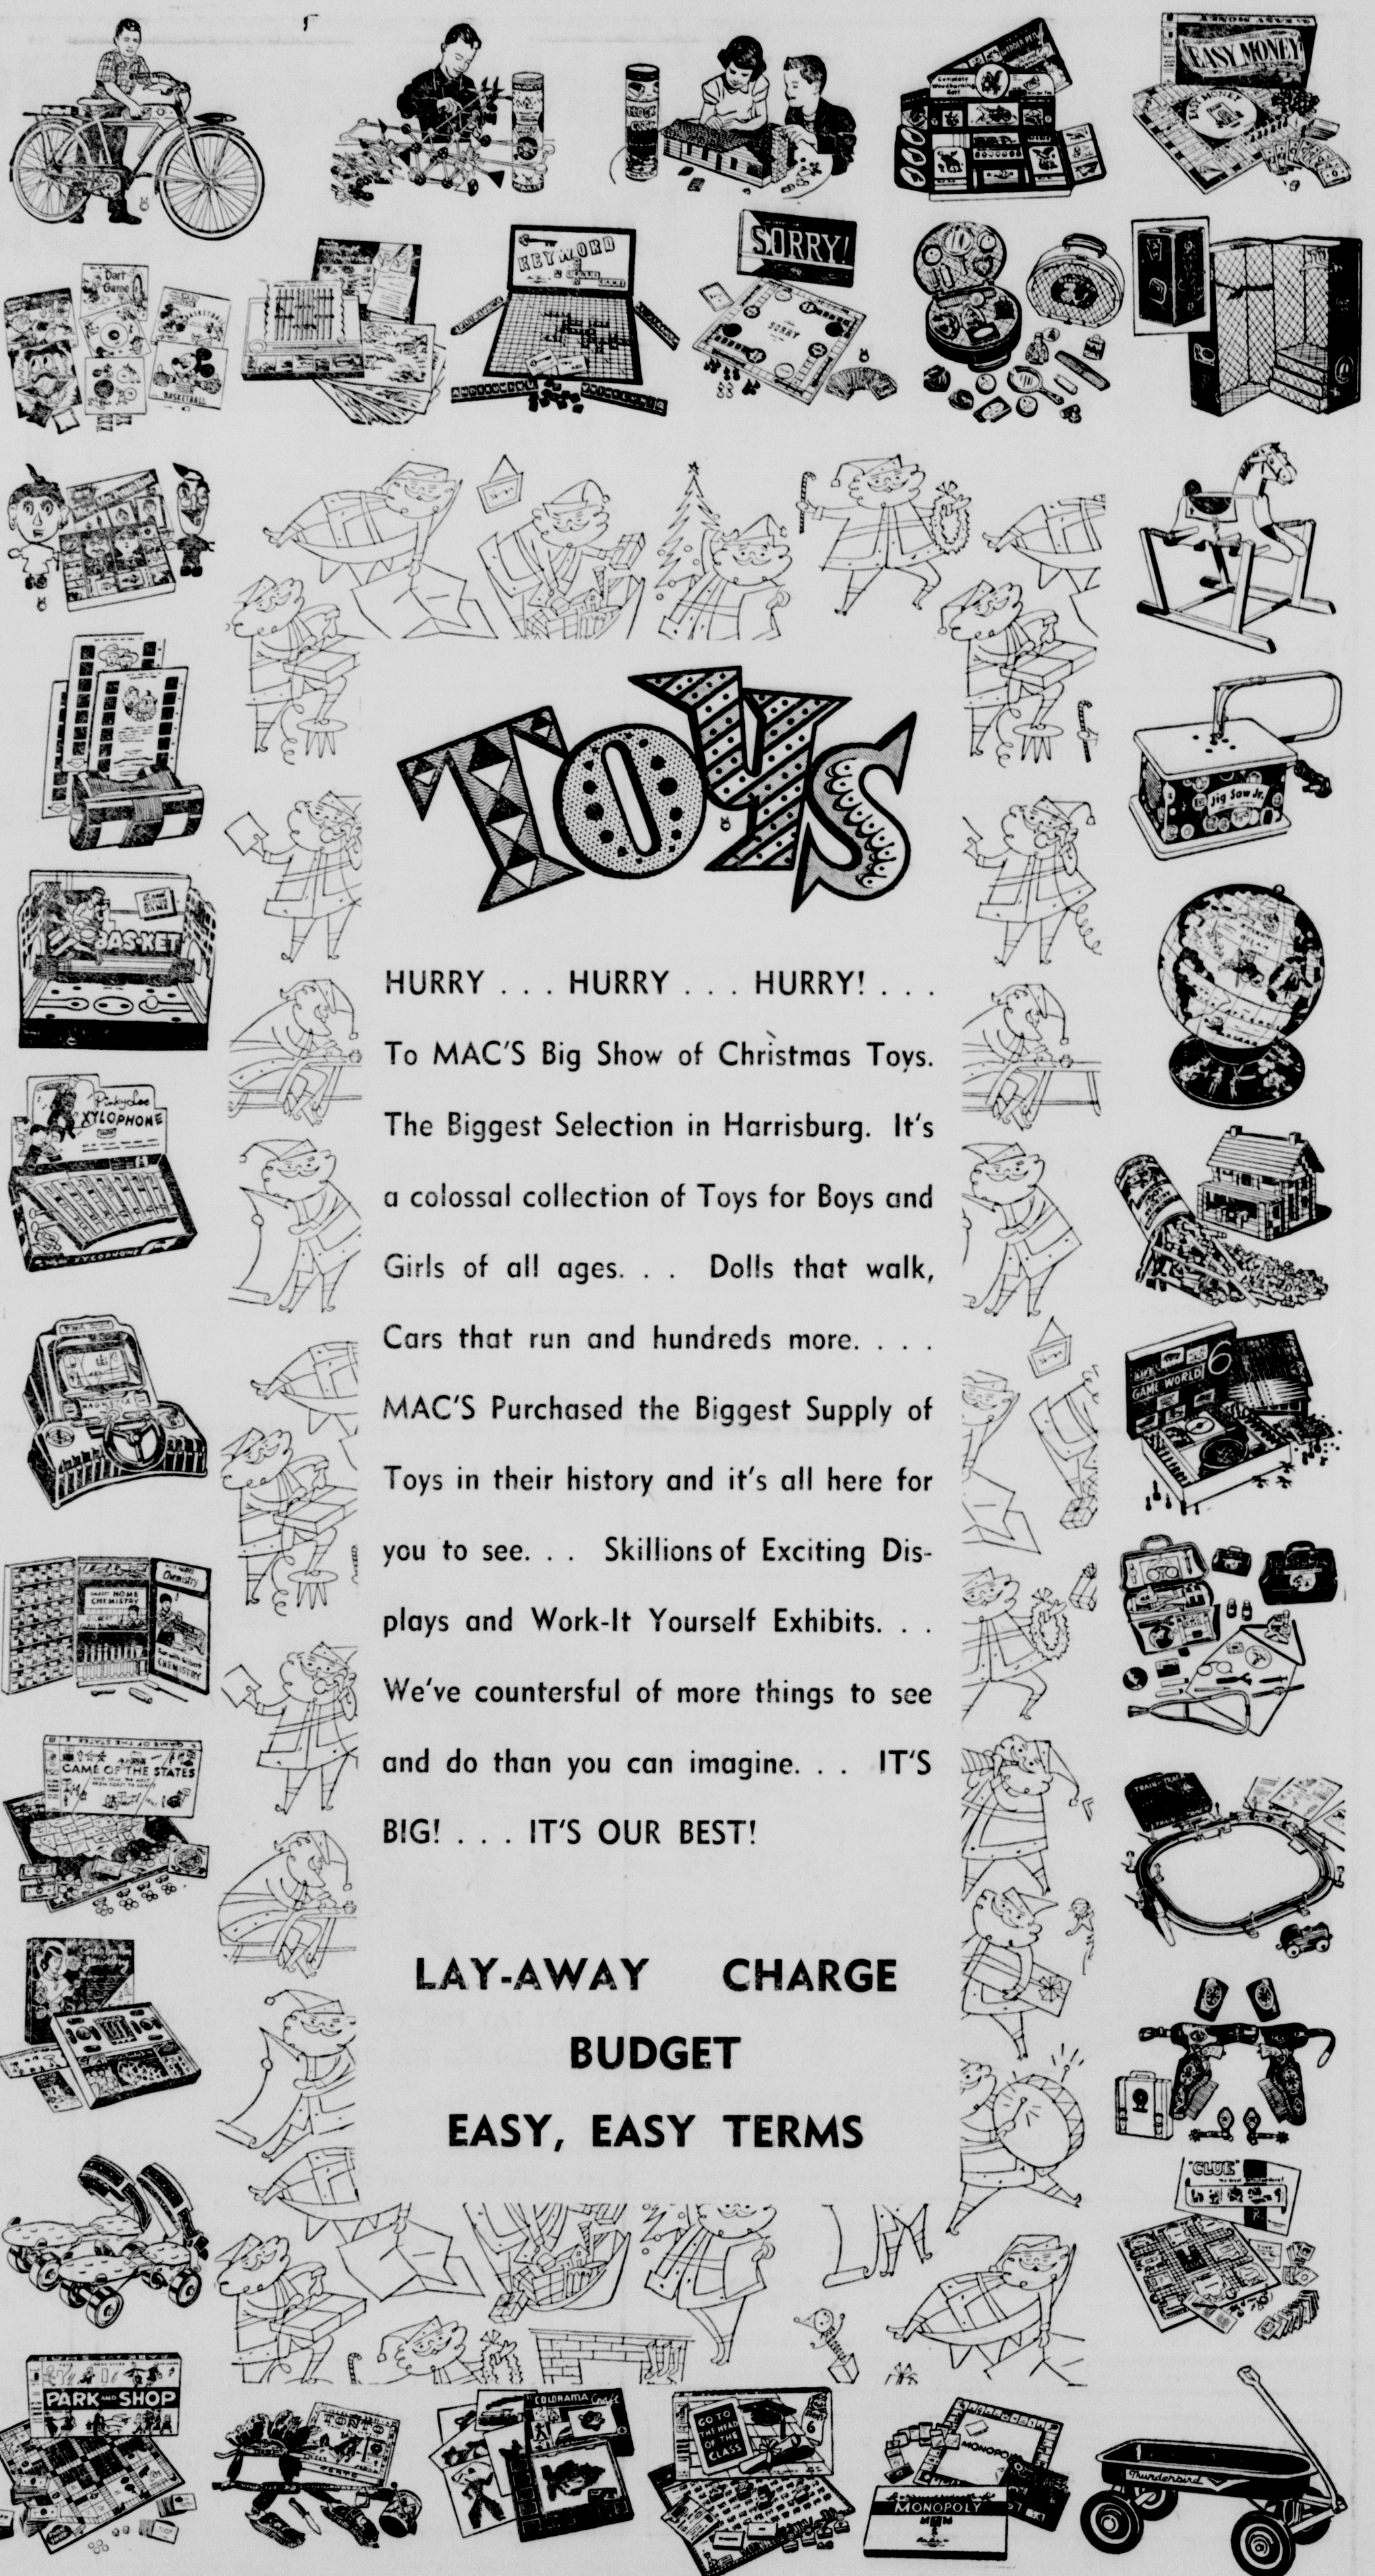

There was a silence.

St. Louis Hawks Play Philadelphia Warriors Tuesday

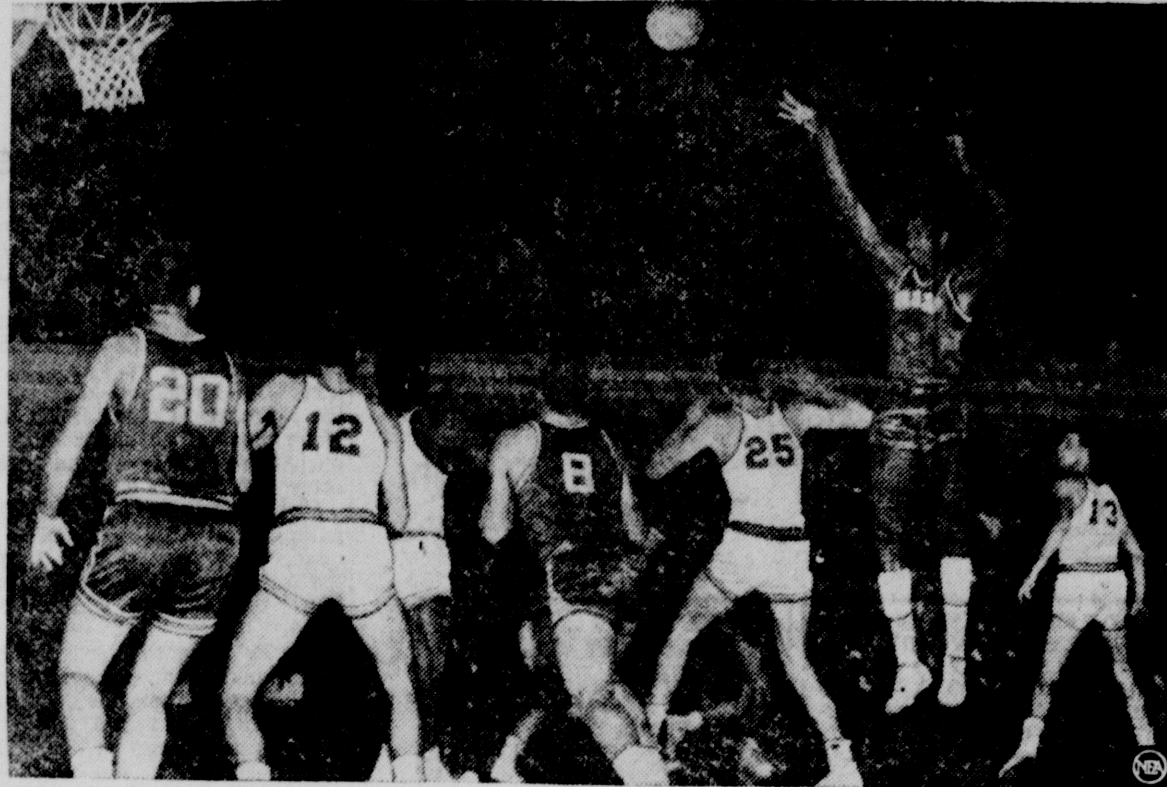

Records may be shattered at Kiel Auditorium tomorrow night when the St. Louis Hawks, first place occupants in the Western division, play the Philadelphia Warriors, who hold down the top spot in the Eastern division of the NBA.

The high-flying Warriors have the greatest collection of point-getters in the history of basketball—a crew topped by Pitchin' Paul Arizin and Neil Johnston—both of whom averaged better than 22 points per game last year. Johnston has won the league scoring crown the past three years while Arizin won the diadem four seasons ago—and then entered the Marines. He returned last year, to finish second to Johnston.

Tom Gola, Player of the Year in college basketball last season and a three-time All-American at La Salle, was the club's top draft choice last spring and he has been impressive to date. He teams with Jack George, a 6-3 backcourtner who averaged around 14 points per game last year. The other starter is 25-year-old Joe Graboski, a 6-8 corner man who has played nine years in the league—and who has a lifetime average of 14.6 per game.

The Warriors have good bench strength with Larry Hennessy and Bob Shafer, a pair of former Villanova All-Americans; Ernie Beck, former Penn record-holder; 6-6 Jackie Moore and 6-8 Walter Davis, two great rebounders, and speedster George Dempsey.

Tickets for the game are now on sale at Goldie's Ticket Agency in the Arcade Building and Kiel Auditorium.

WILT THE STILT—Wilt Chamberlain shows the Kansas varsity incredible, seven-foot Philadelphia schoolboy scored 42 points leading varsity for the first time in Jayhawk history. The Stilt also runs the quarter-mile in fast time.

Midwest Dominates United Press All-America Team; Cassady Leads Balloting

NEW YORK—The Midwest, placing Howard (Hopalong) Cassady of Ohio State and four other players, dominated the 1955 United Press All-America football team selected today in a nationwide poll of 304 sports writers and broadcasters.

This year's "dream team" also was made up of two players each from the South and Southwest, and one each from the Pacific Coast and the East.

Here are the players chosen as the finest in the country at their positions:

Ends: Ron Beagle, Navy, and Ron Kramer, Michigan.

Tackles: Bruce Bosley, West Virginia, and Norman Masters, Michigan State.

Guards: Bo Bolinger, Oklahoma, and Calvin Jones, Iowa.

Center: Bob Pellegrini, Maryland.

Backs: Howard Cassady, Ohio State; Jim Swink, Texas Christian; Paul Hornung, Notre Dame, and Jon Arnett, Southern California.

Cassady Leads Ballot

Cassady, the elusive 172-pound halfback who was the key figure in Ohio State's Big Ten championship quest, was the leading vote-getter on the All-America team. He received a total of 2,979 out of a possible 3,344 points and was chosen for either the first or second team on all but 29 of the ballots cast.

For the sixth year in a row, the Midwest placed the largest number of players in the first three All-America teams with 12 representatives. The South had 9, followed by the Southwest with 5, the Pacific Coast with 4 and the East with 3.

Maryland had four players on the first three teams, placing Sandusky and end Bill Walker on the second team and halfback Ed Vereb on the third team, in addition to Pellegrini. Ohio State, UCLA, Oklahoma and Notre Dame each placed three men on the first three teams.

The personnel of the second and third teams:

Second team: Ends: Walker and Tom Maentz, Michigan.

Tackles: Sandusky and Francis Macinski, Ohio State.

Guards: Hardiman Cureton, UCLA, and Jim Parker, Ohio State.

Center: Hugh Pitts, TCU.

Backs: Welsh; Earl Morall, Michigan State; Tom McDonald, Oklahoma; Bob Davenport, UCLA.

Third team: Ends: Harold Burnine, Missouri, and John Paluck, Pittsburgh.

Tackles: Frank D'Agostino, Auburn, and Sam Huff, West Virginia.

Guards: Franklin Brooks, Georgia Tech, and Pat Biscaglia, Notre Dame.

Center: Jerry Tubbs, Oklahoma.

Backs: Joe Childress, Auburn; Vereb; Don Schaefer, Notre Dame, and Sam Brown, UCLA.

Babe Didrickson Begins Third Bout With Cancer

GALVESTON, Tex.—Babe Didrickson Zaharias, known around the world as perhaps the greatest woman athlete of all time, began her third bout with cancer today. She was "awfully tired" and the sparkle in her eyes was dimmed.

This time she had a friend in her room. Betty Dodd, who probably knows the Babe better than any of the many companions she had on the women's golfing circuit, was at her bedside constantly.

Babe checked into John Sealy hospital Sunday afternoon and went immediately to a room she has rented for 19 days. She had a smile for the receptionist but was reported having severe pains in her hip, leg and foot.

She was given a sedative and Dr. Robert Moore, who has been her physician through the other two bouts she had with the killer cancer, indicated she will be given x-ray and other examinations today.

Moline Tagged Team to Beat

By United Press
Moline tagged itself as a team to beat in Illinois prep basketball by defeating 1955 champions Rockford West 62-55 Saturday night.

Rockford West was just about the unanimous favorite to repeat as champions this season, while Moline, with Whitey Verstraete graduated, wasn't expected to be as strong.

Galesburg was also impressive in winning 57-50 Saturday over Harvey Thornton. Kankakee jolted Danville 52-37 and Dixon edged Clinton, Iowa, 51-46.

Rock Island, Moline's chief northwest rival, breezed by Leyden 65-48. Joliet Catholic downed Lockport 41-30 as scores generally were lower than through last season.

Eagles Defeat Benton, 68-57, In Cage Opener

Eldorado Hits 32 Free Tosses on 26 Ranger Fouls

The Eldorado Eagles got away to a successful start in the 1955-56 basketball campaign at Benton Saturday night, defeating the Rangers by a score of 68-57.

Benton, only two days from football, having completed its grid schedule Thanksgiving Day, was guilty of much fouling and was ragged in all phases of play except shooting from 'way out.

Benton counted 24 times from the field, with practically all goals being scored from 15 to 25 feet out.

But Benton was guilty of numerous fouls, being whistled 26 times while Eldorado committed but seven personals. Eldorado worked the ball in for under-the-basket shots for most of the Eagles' field goals, but play was slowed and Eldorado's passing attack never got under full steam due to the great number of fouls called on the Rangers.

The winning Eagles hit for 32 free tosses, which added to 18 field goals, spelled victory.

Rangers Win Preliminary

The game Saturday was pretty well a repeat performance of the Benton-at-Eldorado opener last season. The Eagles won 60-45, with Benton's fouling playing a big part in the decision. That evening the Rangers were called 24 times and Eldorado 14 for fouling. Eldorado scored 26 free throws and Benton had 13.

Clark opened the scoring Saturday with a jump shot and the Eagles went on to lead 8-0 before Benton scored with the period nearly half gone.

Then the Rangers put on a pressing defense that definitely bothered Eldorado, causing the Eagles to lose the ball on several occasions. By the end of the frame the score was knotted 15-15.

Eldorado Coach Al Adams, who had started Clark and Watson at guards, countered the pressing game by putting Willis in the game in place of Watson. Willis, about half a foot shorter than Watson, is a superior ball handler and teamed with Clark to break through the Ranger press.

Eldorado's attack was well balanced, five players scoring and four in double figures. Lovellette was tops with 18, Stroke was close with 17, Clark had 16 and Laffoon 11. Willis rounded out the scoring with six.

Benton's top scorer was Ross with 20.

The Rangers took the preliminary game, 65-48.

At half time two Benton PE students staged a fine trampoline act that was well received by the crowd.

Browns, Giants Tie, 35-35; Bears Thumped, 53-14

By United Press
The Los Angeles Rams and Cleveland Browns cling to half-game leads in the National Football League's division races today because of inspired "spoilers" efforts by the Chicago Cardinals and New York Giants, two teams with no hope of playing in the Dec. 26 championship game.

The Cardinals, 16 1-2 point underdogs, knocked the Chicago Bears out of first place in the Western Division Sunday with a thumping, 53-14 triumph in the 66th game of their bitter, intra-city series. Los Angeles, which had been a half-game behind the Bears, took first place by edging the Philadelphia Eagles, 23-21 on Les Richter's 26-yard field goal with only seven seconds to go.

New York played its finest 1955 game to hold the champion Browns to a 35-35 tie at the Polo Grounds. The second-place Washington Redskins took advantage of New York's effort and cut Cleveland's Eastern lead to a half-game by downing the Pittsburgh Steelers, 23-14.

Kept Hopes Alive

The Baltimore Colts kept their hopes alive by defeating the San Francisco Forty-Niners in Sunday's other game, 26-14. Baltimore trails Los Angeles by one game. The Green Bay Packers, who lost to the Detroit Lions Thursday, 24-10, are 1 1-2 games behind the Rams.

All teams have two more regular season games. Cleveland visits Pittsburgh and winds up at home against the Cardinals. Washington ends up at home against New York and Pittsburgh. Los Angeles finishes at home against Baltimore and Green Bay. The Bears wind up at home against Detroit and Philadelphia.

Follow Rules and Christmas Mail Will Be On Time

Here's a sure fire way to get all of your Christmas gift packages delivered before Christmas day. Just follow these three simple rules—Wrap them securely—Address them correctly—Mail them early!

Use sturdy mailing cartons, plenty of heavy paper and lots of strong cord in completing your packages. Be sure your return address and the recipient's name and address is inside the package as well as on the mailing label.

Be sure to send your Christmas cards by first class mail thus securing forwarding service and return to you if any of them are undeliverable.

Postmaster Hetherington says his 1955 "Mail early for Christmas" campaign is now going into full gear. You can help tremendously if you mail your gift packages in small groups instead of all at once and be sure to have all of them in the mail by the first week in December. Christmas cards for out-of-town destinations should go by Dec. 10 and cards for local delivery should be mailed by at least a week before Christmas.

Bull Dogs Bow to Carmi, 46-33, In Non-Conference Cage Tilt

Locals Will Play Herrin at Davenport Gym Friday Night

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs opened their basketball season at Davenport gym Saturday night, bowing 46-33 to Carmi.

A goodly crowd was on hand to see the opener, a non-conference affair. Friday night of this week the locals will entertain Herrin in a South Seven contest. The Saturday night game against Eldorado has been changed to Feb. 18; so the locals have but one tilt during this week.

Too many fouls and inability to hit from close range spelled defeat against Carmi. Both teams made 14 field goals but Carmi made 18 free throws out of 28 attempts while the locals were making five out of 13. The locals committed 18 fouls, which was the cause of so much free-throw shooting by Carmi.

Biggest thing on the right side of the ledger, as far as the locals were concerned, were the rebounding of Tony Beal and the fact that there are a number of juniors who show promise.

Coach Gene Bland started Ron Williams at center, Bennie Fulkerson and Don McGowan at guards and Jack Wright and Beal at forwards, but seeing lots of action were Wayne Stone at forward, Bryan Jones at center and Bill Henshaw, both at forward and in the back court. Carmi used but six men in the game.

Bull Pups Lose, 60-49

High point man of the game was Carmi's Ronnie Winter, their fancy grid quarterback who made 18 points. Stone and Jones, both lengthy juniors, tied for local scoring honors with 10 points each. Carmi took an early lead and held it until near midway in the second period when the locals went ahead, 13-12. Then Carmi moved out in front and held a comfortable margin the rest of the game.

Army Triumphs Over Navy, 14-6, To Close Season

By United Press
Overjoyed Army closed the books today on a 1955 college football season made glorious for the Cadets by their inspired upset victory over Navy, but there will be still another chapter for bowl-bound Georgia Tech and Mississippi.

The Cadets, triumphant by 14-6 over Navy in Saturday's dramatic gridiron classic at Philadelphia, returned to the Military Academy at West Point Sunday for a tumultuous celebration.

Coach Earl Blaik, whose team came from behind to win on second-half touchdowns by hard-slashing Pat Uebel and Pete Lash, hailed his team at the victory rally for "beating one of the best Navy teams in many, many years." Earlier Blaik had cast a personal vote against any bowls for Army by saying, "I have had enough football for one season."

But Georgia Tech quickly accepted a bid to the Sugar Bowl and Mississippi accepted a berth in the Cotton Bowl after each wound up its regular season with an impressive victory on Saturday. That completed the following lineup for the major bowls on Jan. 2:

Lineup In Bowls
Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif.—UCLA vs. Michigan State.
Orange Bowl at Miami, Fla.—Oklahoma vs. Alabama.
Sugar Bowl at New Orleans—Georgia Tech vs. Pittsburgh.
Cotton Bowl at Dallas, Tex.—Texas Christian vs. Mississippi.
The Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., was scheduled to hold a meeting today at which the two teams would be selected. It was believed that three Southeastern Conference teams were the ones from which the choice would be made—Auburn, Tennessee, and Vanderbilt.

The Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex., filled one berth with Texas Tech., but did not expect to announce the other for "several days."

Southern California didn't get any bowl bid, but it gained sweet revenge when it walloped Notre Dame, 42-20, at Los Angeles.

Oklahoma, the nation's No. 1 team, completed a perfect season with the expected 53-0 victory over Oklahoma A&M.

The Indonesian Republic is made up of 79 million persons speaking some 40 languages and clustered on 3,000 islands sprawled across the Equator.

got beat, 60-49, after the first quarter indicated the tilt might be a rout for the locals. Ben Chamness' boys were ahead, 13-3, at the end of the half, but were behind, 27-24, at halftime on the strength of a 24-point second quarter by the foe. Carmi extended its lead during the third and fourth periods. Ray Hassett was high for the locals with 21 points. Other players used and their points: Bill Yates 15, Phillip Kane 6, Bob Clark 3, Donald Biggs 2, Mike Walker 2, Don Pickford 0.

Girl Admits Church Fire

NAPERVILLE, Ill. (AP) A 16-year-old girl in suburban Naperville admitted accidentally setting fire to a church Saturday.

The girl admitted she dropped a lighted match in a storage room of the First Methodist church. The church's north wing was destroyed and damage was estimated at $100,000.

Police Chief Martin Prignitz said the girl's 15-year-old brother telephoned authorities and asked whether there was a reward for the person who started the fire. The call was traced and the brother was picked up and named his sister, Prignitz said.

Use Gunfire if Necessary, Indiana Guardsmen Ordered

NEW CASTLE, Ind. (AP) - National Guardsmen patrolling riot-torn New Castle were under orders to use gunfire if necessary.

Battalion Commander Maj. John Anderson issued the order Sunday after a car smashed through a roadblock and tried to run down several guardsmen.

The guardsmen have been a fixture of New Castle life since nine persons were wounded Oct. 5 in a gun-battle at the strikebound Perfect Circle Corp. foundry. The troops were withdrawn for a while, but were ordered back into the city after a few flareups of violence.

Church Council Says Ministers Pay Second Lowest

NEW YORK (AP)—Only art, among the professions, pays less than the ministry, the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. said today.

Although ministers are making more money in the United States today than they were in 1939, their increases have not kept up with the increase in other fields and in some cases do not provide as much purchasing power as the 1939 salaries, the council said.

Figures for three large denominations for 1939 and 1953 were cited. The council said they are the only ones of its 30 denominations membership which report them.

The Protestant Episcopal Church, traditionally highest-paying Protestant denomination, paid ministers an average of $1,555 annually in 1953 as compared with $2,725 in 1939.

The 1953 figure is actually worth only $2,365 in 1939 buying power, however, the council said, or less than the 1939 salary. The church's figures include the rental value of the home provided for clergymen.

United Presbyterian Church salaries have provided a 3 per cent increase in buying power in grossing from an average $1,979 in 1939 to $3,490 in 1953, the council said. These figures also include rental value of the clergyman's home.

The (Congregational) Christian churches have increased the average salary from $1,769 in 1939 to $3,484 in 1953, a nearly 6 per cent increase in buying power, the council said. These figures do not include value of a residence provided by the church.

The council said that of incomes reported by the Bureau of Census, for 1949, only farmers, barbers, deckhands, waiters and laborers made less than ministers, who were shown to make a median salary of $2,412 without rental value of their homes.

Among the professions, the council said, only artists and art teachers, with a median of $2,360, made less than ministers. Other professional medians ranged from $4,002 for accountants and auditors to $8,115 for physicians.

Charge Centralia Men with Operation Of Well Cleaning Racket

PANA, Ill. (AP) — Four Centralia men were arrested Saturday on charges of operating a well cleaning racket.

Those arrested, and later released on $200 bond each pending hearings, were Marcus Howard and Vern Nicholson, charged with receiving money under false pretenses, and Charles Fletcher and Harlan Milam, charged with being accessories.

Police Chief Ferd Legru said the men came to homes here and in Tower Grove and offered to "test" wells to see if they needed cleaning. They then reported the wells needed cleaning and said they would do the job for $3 to $5. But after the jobs were started the price was raised, sometimes as high as $20 to $60.

Steer With Bad Cold Competes For Grand Title

CHICAGO (AP) — A steer with a bad cold carried the hopes of a pretty teenage girl in competition with some of the finest cattle in the nation at the International Livestock Exposition today.

The steer, "Shorty II," is owned by 17-year-old Janice Hullinger of Manly, Iowa, winner of the 1954 grand championship. Shorty caught pneumonia last week and couldn't compete in the junior competition where the steer originally was entered.

But Sunday, show officials decided to allow Janice to enter her animal for the grand championship, anyway. The judging, which began today, will include a top steer raised by another teen-ager, 16-year-old Nancy Turner from near Champaign, Ill.

Nancy won the junior grand championship Saturday with her 986-pound Aberdeen Angus, "Julius." In past years, the junior grand champion often has gone on to win the show's greatest prize, the grand championship. Last year's champion, "Shorty I" brought Janice $25,000.

A Shorthorn steer owned by Professor Robert Long of the University of Kentucky at Lexington also will compete for the coveted grand championship. Long's 1,150-pound summer yearling, "U.K. Spotlight," took first place in his class today.

Judging also was under way in swine and sheep divisions of the show, but first interest was centered on the cattle barn, and the steer with the bad cold.

Iowa State College walked off with the inter-collegiate livestock judging contest Sunday when its five-man team amassed a total of 4,384 points out of a possible 5,090. The 1954 winner, Oklahoma A&M, was second with 4,366 points, while Purdue's performance was judged third highest with 4,325.

Charles Christians of Iowa State was named individual winner with 917 points, followed by Ed Fisher of Oklahoma A&M and Ted Hoersch of Michigan State.

Britain Puts Cyprus Troops on Wartime Basis

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Britain today gave wartime status to 12,000 troops in this Mediterranean island colony to crush savage terrorism which has killed six British soldiers in recent days.

The orders put the seven battalions now stationed in Cyprus on "active service." It is a measure which Britain has never taken in the Middle East in peacetime before now.

Hog Prices Drop During Month Of Gov't Buying

WASHINGTON (AP) — Live hog prices dropped $2.75 a 100 pounds in the first month of the government's program for buying pork products and lard to bolster sagging prices to farmers.

The program was announced Oct. 24. The average price paid farmers that day for barrows and gilts (butcher hogs) on the Chicago market was $13.90. The average for the same kind of hogs on Nov. 23 was $11.15. The previous day the average price was $11.11, the lowest in 14 years.

The government has purchased 10,111,650 pounds of pork products and lard for distribution through the school lunch program and to relief and welfare outlets. The total included 6,871,200 pounds of lard, 1,526,850 pounds of canned pork and gravy, 1,425,600 pounds of lunch meat, and 288,000 pounds of canned ham.

This is just the beginning of the government program to spend about $85,000,000 for about 170,000,000 pounds of pork products and 30,000,000 pounds of lard through next August.

Paschen Warns Democrats Against Over-Confidence

PEORIA (AP)—Cook County Treasurer Herbert C. Paschen warned his fellow Democrats Sunday night against over-confidence about their chances in next year's elections.

Paschen, who has been spoken of as a possible candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, said he was "heartened" by recent election results.

But he said in a speech before a Young Democrats group that the party must "work harder than ever" to clinch a victory next November. He predicted that "hot subjects" in the campaign will include toll roads, taxes, overweight trucks, schools, gambling, state police, and farm prices.

Four Accepted For Jury to Try Former Policeman

MARION, Ill. (AP)—Four men were accepted today for the jury that will try a former policeman for the murder of a paroled convict.

The trial of William Priddy, 63, Carterville, opened in Williamson County Circuit Court.

Priddy is accused of the shotgun slaying of Edmund Smith in Carterville last May.

Smith, on parole from a manslaughter conviction, was killed as he slept in the home of a friend. The first four members of the jury were John Workman, Marion, Glen E. Eberhardt, Johnston City, Leo Grider, Marion, and John Booth, Herrin.
